

-]DES[- Clan Officer's Creed

I, (your name), hereby accept this commission as an Officer in the Double-Edged Sword Clan (-]DES[-), on behalf of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. I understand completely the duties of my position, and do solemnly affirm that I will perform the same to the utmost of my abilities by the grace of Almighty God. I shall always seek to improve the skills and situations of those who have been entrusted to my command. I will eternally work to present each of those under me perfect (mature) in Christ as instructed by the Word of God (Col 1:28).

Gallantly will I lead my troops onto the battlefield - ready, willing, and able to hear and obey all commands from their officer and NCO's. I will prove to others that I am more than worthy of the position to which I have been elected. I will become worthy of my title on the battlefield, because of my strength of character, quick decisiveness, superb tactical maneuvers, and clear but concise communication with my team of Soldiers.

I will keep myself morally pure, mentally alert, and Biblically strong, so that I may be an example for others to follow. I will always be ready to answer any questions about the hope that is given me by my Lord Jesus Christ, as instructed by Holy Scripture (1 Peter 3:15). I shall always choose my words carefully and thoughtfully before I speak, because I recognize the power of life and death that they hold (Proverbs 18:21). I will be a humble example of servitude, submission, and Godliness, just as our Lord Jesus Christ was. I will seek to glorify God in all of my actions (1 Cor 10:31), and will never do anything to willfully bring hurt to the cause of Christ by my actions.

I shall not place Double-Edged Sword (-]DES[-) ahead of or before the divine order of God, Family, or Career, although I realize the importance of this clan to bring unsaved souls into eternal salvation by a personal knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ, and that the same is -]DES[- Clan's ultimate Creed and Mission.

Thus, I now make a covenant with God and my fellow brothers and sisters of -]DES[-, that I accept the aforementioned and shall execute the same to my utmost for the glory of Jesus Christ, by the power of the Holy Spirit of God.

Should there come a time when I am unable to fully and properly discharge the duties and responsibilities of this office, I shall inform the chain of command accordingly.
